Government Corruption and False Flag Terrorism

Dear Police Commissioners

And Senior Staff, who have not been compromised, Corrupted and turned to the dark evil side of helping to Carry out False Flag Terrorism against your fellow Citizens – countrymen.

Real Terrorism Going On Around The World

In Part 5, I will try and educate State Police Forces on who really is carrying out Terrorist Attacks around the World and we will Center on Assassinations.

But first a bit of bitch slapping around, people will have to wake up, how they have been Lied to, Programmed, Educated to look in the wrong direction for who is carrying out these Assassination Terrorist Attacks.

Starting with the Zionist Criminal Mafia Jewish Gang

For many years now they have hidden their hand of doing these assassinations, because they have Groups like AIPAC The Jewish Lobby in Washington, ADL, NSW Board of Deputies and many other Jewish Groups which are just fronts for Jewish Crime Gangs, out there in the public spot light defending these people actions.

By hiding behind their religion, lets flash some of these people out into the open once and for all to see.

And the way I am going to do this by presenting the next few stories, all this information can be found on the Internet.

Evidence presented will be: -

- 1) Radical Muslim group run by Israeli Jews!
- 2) New York-Based Muslim's Web Site Calls for God to 'Kill the Jews'

N.B. If Muslims are the ones going about carrying out Terrorist Attacks about the World like corrupt lying politicians, Mainstream Media and Police, Intelligence Agencies and Military tell us all they are.

Question – Why is that above Radical Muslim Group in New York City run by Jews?

Question – If Muslims are carrying off Terrorist Attacks, Why are Jews who live in New York City creating Fake Muslim – Jihad websites?

- 3) Bush & Obama? Israeli assassinations and US Presidents

Read how Israel tried to assassinate Daddy Bush back in 1990 odd.

4) John Gunther Dean American Ambassador reportedly a target of an Israeli assassination plot.

Read how Israel tried to assassinate US Ambassador to Lebanon in 1980.

Wasn't the US Military Beirut Bombings in 1983?
Ummmm the Plot thickens!

5) Fanatic Rabbi Who Teaches "Goyim Slavery" Comes to US

Read what these people really think of you Sgt Barge Ass sitting at your desk stuffing your mouth with Donuts, and Constable Pretty Boy, with muscles budging working out at the Gym 5 days a weeks, and spoof his trousers to carry that M16 gun and other toys SOG, and Counter Terrorism Officers just die to carry.

- A bit of satire thrown in <Wink, Wink>

6) The Thirteenth Tribe

THE KHAZAR EMPIRE AND ITS HERITAGE

Finally a bit of history, about these Zionist Mafia Criminals who you let get away with carrying out Terrorist Attacks & Assassinations.

So you thought they were all just lovely, kind hearted Jews who want to return to their country of birth, Heritage.

Yeah right!

We will expose their real history, past and origins and show how you were all conned, the real reason the Zionist Mafia Jews back by the Rothchild's Banking Family and the other 7 Zionist Jewish Family's who control the Worlds money supply.

Is to steal Palestinian land, set up a Criminal Safe Haven country so they can run back to when they commit crimes around the World.

And set themselves up to control the Whole Middle East Oil & Gas supplies for their own Sheer Greed, Profit and Power.

 You may like to remember all this as you carry out your jobs in the Counter Terrorism / Terrorism area.

Seen the following have sold out and are controlled by the above in Australia, you are our last line of Defense against these people doing Terrorism and Assassinations in Australia.

If you fail at bringing these people to Justice then the whole country fails, you might as well go home and turn over the keys to all the criminals in Australia.

- What to do with these people if you catch them doing Terrorist Attacks, Assassinations ummmm!

Not Advocating Violence or breaking the Law but.

Natural Progression

If the system is so corrupt and broken and the above people are just getting let off for their crimes, Natural Progression says, some people will get the shits sitting back and seeing this happen.

A pity a few bad, bad people were killed while escaping custody – arrest isn't it? And I will defend to the hilt anybody who in doing their job who had to take this action, but I am Not Advocating nothing for anybody to do or carry out.

1) Radical Muslim group run by Israeli Jews!

The Radical "Muslim" Group That Threatened South Park Creators Was Founded and Run by Joseph Cohen, a Former Israeli Radical Who Used to Live in a Settlement in the West Bank. Fundamentalists Jews who pretend to be Radical Muslims, a growing problem...

South Park ran an unedited image of Muhammad in 2001 in an episode called "Super Best Friends"... and nothing happened.

In fact, the episode had been on the South Park website for viewing at any time for the past few years (they just removed it)... and nothing happened.

For 4 seasons they had that image in their opening segment for every single show... and nothing happened.

So for years on end no Muslim group, "radical" or otherwise, has threatened Matt and Trey or Comedy Central about the image of Muhammad that has been available for all to see every single day.

All of a sudden last week a group called "Revolution Muslim" threatened violence against Comedy Central if they aired an image of Muhammad which forced Comedy Central to censor the show and now you have even liberals talking about those "radical Muslims" and their threats of violence.

Karl Rove couldn't have done it any better.

Problem is, Revolution Muslim was started and run by a "converted" Israeli settler who studied at an orthodox rabbinical school in Israel before becoming a settler in the occupied territories.

You don't think a orthodox Israeli settler would have any desire to see progressive Americans start to hate "radical Muslims" do you?

You think "Revolution Muslim" helps or hurts the Israeli PR campaign after Operation Cast Lead and the Goldstone Report?

Here's the research your team should have done before you went out and spun-up the neoconish "radicalized Muslim" hype for your progressive audience...

"Revolution Muslim" is always there to say just the wrong thing to make Americans hate "Radical Muslims".

They praised the killing of Daniel Pearl with a childish puppet show.

They sent "Get Well" wishes to the guy who shot those 13 people at Fort Hood.

Yousef al-Khattab, 41, a radical Muslim in the borough of Queens who runs RevolutionMuslim.com, claims on the site that the soldiers massacred at the Texas base deserved to be massacred, and he insists the victims are in "eternal hellfire."

As for the suspected gunman — Army psychiatrist Maj. Nidal Malik Hasan — Al-Khattab hails him as a hero. Fox News

You can count on “Revolution Muslim” to say the wrong thing at the right moment to get Americans to hate all those “radical” Muslims.

Israeli Settlers in Hebron

But the only thing is... “Revolution Muslim” (his creative fake “Scary American Terrorist” website) was started and ran by a man named Yousef al-Khattab.

Yousef al-Khattab was born Joseph Cohen, in Brooklyn, New York.

He was jewish.

But not just jewish, he was a settler who went to Palestine to live on the illegal Israeli settlements.

Joseph Cohen isn’t alone though.

There is another "radical Muslim" convert from Judaism (the original fake "scary American Terrorist") who makes sure that "radical" Muslims are hated in America, his name is Adam Pearlman and he went by the "radicalized" Muslim name "Adam Gadahn".

Adam Pearlman is actually the grandson of a member of the board of directors of the Anti-Defamation League (at least he was on the board... Dr. Carl Pearlman died in 1998).

Gadahn grew up on a goat farm in rural Riverside County and moved to Santa Ana to live with his grandparents, the late Dr. Carl Pearlman and his wife, Agnes, in the mid-1990s.

It was here that he learned of Islam via the Internet and later fell in with a radical sect at the Islamic Society of Orange County OC Register

And the funny thing is, after all that hate speech and those calls to violence, Cohen never got arrested.

Hell, even Fox News knew exactly where he was.

Guns, death threats, and all the rest and amazingly Yousef al-Khattab (Joseph Cohen) was never arrested.

A New York City bicycle cabbie who mocked the murder of journalist Daniel Pearl and posted a prayer on the Web calling for the murder of Jews is now sending a 'Get Well Soon' message to the suspected Fort Hood gunman, the New York Post reported.

After growing up in a jewish neighborhood in New York and attending a orthodox rabbinical school in Israel, Joseph Cohen went to live in a settlement in the West Bank to help steal Palestinian land from Palestinians.

His story is that he “converted” to Islam after meeting someone in a chat room.

You know what “settlers” are like in the occupied territories don’t you Mr. Stewart?

Ever see that video of them beating the old Palestinian woman with a baseball bat?

Ever see that video Mr. Stewart?

If not, take a look here.

This video was released by B’Tselem (an Israeli peace organization).

Al-Khattab has claimed that he has nothing to do with the site anymore but the person he founded it with left prior to all of this earlier this month.

al-Khattab claims to have quit the site in late Dec. last year.

His partner who started it with him also claims to have quit the site earlier this month.

I guess no one wanted to go to jail for issuing death-threats over the internet.

But someone did it.

I find it funny that after being born and raised as a Jewish person, after attending orthodox rabbinical school in Israel, and after being radical enough to move to occupied territories in Palestine to live as a settler (the most hard-core of Israeli Zionists), ALL OF A SUDDEN Joseph Cohen dropped all of that teaching and suddenly became a "radical Muslim" after a chat in a chat room.

He became a "radical Muslim" then just HAPPENED to move back to the city he lived in before... Brooklyn, N.Y.

Anybody believe that crap?

Jon Stewart does.

So much so he mocks "radical Muslims" for threatening South Park.

Now, go here and watch Jon Stewart joke and make derogatory comments about the group that threatened the creators of South Park for showing the image of Muhammad on their recent show.

Then he thanks all the "other" religions for not behaving like the "Radical Muslims" did when Stewart makes fun of their religion.

He then shows clip after clip showing how they have made fun of Jewish people without anyone threatening violence.

Radical Muslim is a COINTELPRO site, run by a "converted" Jewish settler pretending to be a "radical Muslim".

He is the ONE Muslim that complained about the South Park episode... an ex-radical Israeli settler, Mr. Stewart... real Muslims haven't threatened South Park once since 2001 when they FIRST ran an image of the prophet on their show.

Fake Al Qaeda

"The truth is, there is no Islamic army or terrorist group called Al Qaida.

And any informed intelligence officer knows this.

But there is a propaganda campaign to make the public believe in the presence of an identified entity representing the 'devil' only in order to drive the TV watcher to accept a unified international leadership for a war against terrorism.

The country behind this propaganda is the US . . ." --
Former British Foreign Secretary Robin Cook

"Ana raicha Al Qaeda" is colloquial for "I'm going to the toilet". A very common and widespread use of the word "Al-Qaeda" in different Arab countries in the public language is for the toilet bowl.

This name comes from the Arabic verb "Qa'ada" which mean "to sit", pertinently, on the "Toilet Bowl".

In most Arabs homes there are two kinds of toilets: "Al-Qaeda" also called the "Hamam Franji" or foreign toilet, and "Hamam Arabi" or "Arab toilet" which is a hole in the ground.

Lest we forget it, the potty used by small children is called "Ma Qa'adia" or "Little Qaeda".

So, if you were forming a terrorist group, would you call yourself, "The Toilet"?

The Phony (Mossad) Al Qaeda Cell in Palestine

But Adam Pearlman is his REAL name!

Adam is the grandson of the late Carl K. Pearlman a prominent Jewish urologist in Orange County.

Carl was also a member of the board of directors of the Anti-Defamation League, which was caught spying on Americans for Israel in 1993, much as AIPAC has been caught up in the more recent spy scandal.

Two british SAS troops in Iraq dressed as Al
Qa`eda

The two British operatives, arrested by Basra police and later freed by a British military operation, were identified by the BBC as "members of the SAS elite special forces"

(http://news.bbc.co.uk/2/hi/middle_east/424614.stm).

They were disguised by wigs and Arab dress.

Iraqi sources reported that the Iraqi police were watching the two, and when they tried to approach them they shot two policemen and tried to escape the scene.

The Iraqi police chased and captured them, to discover large amount of explosives planted in the car, which apparently was planned to be remotely detonated in the busy market of Basra.

The SAS involvement in Iraq was discovered on the 30th of January 2005 when an RAF Hercules plane crashed near Baghdad killing then British servicemen after dropping off fifty SAS members north of Baghdad to fight Iraqi guerillas.

2) New York-Based Muslim's Web Site Calls for God to 'Kill the Jews'

Yousef al-Khattab, who runs RevolutionMuslim.com and pedals a pedicab in New York City, insists the words he has posted on his Web site are a prayer, and not a threat — and that his hatred is protected by the First Amendment.

"If it was a threat, I'd be in jail," the 41-year-old al-Khattab told Foxnews.com from his home in Queens.
"I'm asking my God, that's what it is.

Every supporter of Israel is an enemy combatant and the immune system is not anti-Semitic for resisting disease."

Yousef al-Khattab's real name is Joseph Cohen (they even admit it in the photo caption).

He is JEWISH, and like Adam Gadahn (real name Adam Pearlman) is a phony trying to trick Americans into making war on Israel's enemies.

Why are the Muslims Israel's enemies?

Simple.

The "Clash of Civilizations" is really about a clash of banking systems.

ON the one hand you have the so-called "Western" banking system involving compound interest and legalized counterfeiting by private central banks, the very system whose two forerunners nearly ruined the US and whose current incarnation is doing exactly that.

This system of banking, which enriches the bankers while impoverishing the masses, tolerates no threats.

When President Andrew Jackson revoked the charter of the first Bank of the United States, there was an attempted assassination which failed when both pistols used by the assassin failed to fire.

Both Lincoln and Kennedy attempted to free the nation's people from the bankers by returning to the original Constitutional form of currency notes issued interest-free by the government.

Lincoln had his greenbacks, and Kennedy had his US Notes.

Both of these Presidents were assassinated and in both cases their new currencies were immediately withdrawn from circulation and destroyed.

When Adolf Hitler dared issue a government currency to pull Germany out of the post WW1 hyper-inflation, the global bankers declared war on Germany, trying to organize a global boycott on all German goods to crush Germany's new economy before the rest of the world's people realized that it was a better system.

The anger from this obvious attempt to destroy their economy is what set the stage for WW2.

In contrast, the Islamic system of banking is a long plus flat fee.

Because of this system, the Islamic world has not suffered from the crushing debts created by western banks.

Western banks see this alternative system as a dire threat to their power and profits.

So inevitably, as the globalists pushy towards a one world government, there must be a war between western style banking and Islamic banking, which means a manufactured war between Christians and Muslims, which the bankers will cheer on but not personally get into.

Which is why people like Adam Pearlman and Joseph Cohen do what they do.

3) Bush & Obama? Israeli assassinations and US Presidents

There is evidence that in 1991 an Israeli undercover team planned to assassinate a U.S. President. The intended victim was George Herbert Walker Bush. The first person to write of the plot was a former 11-term Republican Congressman from Illinois, Paul Findley. In a 1992 article in the Washington Report for Middle East Affairs.

By

Alison Weir / CNI

On January 13th the Atlanta Jewish Times featured a column by its owner-publisher suggesting that Israel might someday need to "order a hit" on the president of the United States.

In the column, publisher Andrew Adler describes a scenario in which Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu would need to "give the go-ahead for U.S. based Mossad agents to take out a president deemed unfriendly to Israel."

The purpose?

So that the vice president could then take office and dictate U.S. policies that would help the Jewish state “obliterate its enemies.”

Adler writes that it is highly likely that the idea “has been discussed in Israel’s most inner circles.”

Numerous Jewish leaders quickly condemned Adler, who has now apologized for the column, resigned, and there are some reports that he plans to put the newspaper up for sale.

An Israeli columnist noted that the hatred being stirred up against Obama is similar to conditions in Israel that led to the murder of Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin by a Jewish extremist.

Many of those criticizing Adler claim that he had defamed Israel by suggesting that it would ever do such a thing.

Abe Foxman, head of the Jewish Anti-Defamation League (ADL) proclaimed: “There is absolutely no excuse, no justification, no rationalization for this kind of rhetoric. It doesn’t even belong in fiction.”

In reality, however, Adler’s expectation that Israel’s inner circles have explored such a course of action, and would be willing to undertake it, may be entirely accurate.

The fact is that Israel has killed and plotted to assassinate people throughout the world a number have been Americans.

One alleged plot was chillingly similar to Adler's suggestion.

Secret Service warned of Israeli assassination plans

There is evidence that in 1991 an Israeli undercover team planned to assassinate a U.S. President.

The intended victim was George Herbert Walker Bush.

The first person to write of the plot was a former 11-term Republican Congressman from Illinois, Paul Findley.

In a 1992 article in the Washington Report for Middle East Affairs, Findley described the alleged scheme and how it was revealed.

Findley writes that the U.S. Secret Service had received a warning that elements of Israel's spy agency might target Bush when he went to Madrid for the opening day of the peace conference to be held that year.

According to Findley, a former Mossad agent named Victor Ostrovsky who had written a book exposing Israel's spy agency told a group of Canadian parliamentarians that he had received secret intelligence suggesting that the "the Mossad's hatred of Bush – and support for Vice President Dan Quayle – might lead to an attempt on the president's life."

Israel considered Quayle much closer to Israel than Bush.

Bush had particularly angered Israel by attempting to pressure Israel into ending its illegal settlement expansion on confiscated Palestinian land by withholding loan guarantees until Israel ended this practice.

Findley writes that Ostrovsky's statements were relayed to Findley's friend and former colleague Paul "Pete" McCloskey, a prominent former Republican Congressman from California who had recently been named by Bush to the National and Community Service Commission.

McCloskey, a decorated Marine veteran and graduate of Stanford law school who had at one time been considered a presidential contender, flew to Ottawa to debrief Ostrovsky in person and evaluate his information.

Findley reports that Ostrovsky told McCloskey that the Mossad wanted "to do everything possible to preserve a state of war between Israel and its neighbors, assassinating President Bush, if necessary."

Ostrovsky said that a PR campaign was already underway in both Israel and the United States to "prepare public acceptance of Dan Quayle as president."

Convinced that Ostrovsky was legitimate and his information significant, McCloskey jumped on the next flight to Washington, where he reported Ostrovsky's intelligence to the Secret Service and State Department.

The apparent plot never went forward, perhaps because Ostrovsky and McCloskey had given it away.

Ostrovsky gave more details about the plot two years later in his 1994 book, "The Other Side of Deception: A Rogue Agent Exposes the Mossad's Secret Agenda," published by HarperCollins.

In the book Ostrovsky writes that an extremist group within Mossad was responsible for the plan.

He says they kept the plan secret from then Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Shamir, though they believed that Shamir would have ordered such a hit himself if he hadn't been constrained by politics.

In the lead-up to Israel's 1948 founding war, Shamir had headed up a terrorist group known for its assassinations.

In his review of Ostrovsky's book, Ambassador Andrew Killgore, a retired career foreign service officer and publisher of the Washington Report, called the book an "insider's probing exposé of some Middle East realities that have been hidden too long from all but Israeli eyes."

Ostrovsky writes that the Israelis planned a "false flag" operation in which they would pin the assassination on Palestinians.

They kidnapped three Palestinian militants from Beirut who were to be the scapegoats, took them to Israel's Negev desert, and held them incommunicado.

"Meanwhile," Killgore writes, "Mossad-generated threats on the president's life, seemingly from Palestinians, were leaked.

These were designed to throw suspicion on the organization of rogue Palestinian terrorist Abu Nidal.

Names and descriptions of the three terrorists were leaked to Spanish police so that, if the plot was successful, blame would automatically fall on them.”

Ostrovsky reports that after the assassination plot was eventually cancelled, the three Palestinian prisoners were “terminated.”

Targeting Americans

If the plot had gone forward, this would not have been the first time that Israel targeted Americans for death.

Nor would it be the first false flag operation.

- In 1954 the Mossad planned to firebomb American installations, libraries, and other gathering places in Egypt.

The Muslim Brotherhood was to be blamed for the attacks, thus causing American animosity toward Egypt.

An accidental early detonation of one of the devices caused the plot, known as the Lavon Affair, to unravel before it could kill or mutilate the intended Americans.

- In 1967 Israeli air and sea forces perpetrated an almost two-hour assault in which they tried to sink a US Navy ship with a crew of 294.

While the attack failed to sink the ship, it succeeded in killing 34 Americans and injuring 174.

Some analysts have conjectured that this was also a false-flag operation it is highly likely that Egypt would have been blamed for the attack if the ship had gone down.

- In 1973 Israeli fighter pilots were ordered to shoot down an unarmed U.S. reconnaissance plane (at the time the U.S. was delivering massive weaponry to Israel to prevent it from losing the "Yom Kippur" war with Egypt and Syria).

While the Israelis were unable to reach the altitude of the U.S. plane, they did manage that same year to shoot down a civilian Libyan airliner that had strayed over Israeli territory, killing 104 men, women, and children. One was an American.

- In 1990 a Canadian-American scientist and father of seven, Gerald Bull, was assassinated in Belgium.

All indications are that it was an Israeli Mossad hit team that drilled five bullets into the back of his head and neck.

(Israel has assassinated a number of scientists of various nationalities.

The most recent is a 32-year-old Iranian father with a young son.)

- In 2003 it came out that Israeli leaders had officially decided to undertake assassination operations on U.S. soil.
- An FBI spokesman, queried about the Israeli plans, said only: "This is a policy matter. We only enforce federal laws."
- In recent years a growing number of American peace activists have been intentionally killed, maimed, and injured by Israeli forces, including 23-year-old Rachel Corrie, 21-year-old Brian Avery, 37-year-old Tristan Anderson, 21-year-old Emily Henoschowitz, and 21-year-old Furkan Dogan.

All of this has been minimally reported in the U.S. press. While major news media

From England to Israel to Australia covered the Jewish Times' apparent endorsement of a possible Israeli assassination of a U.S. President, the scandal has been largely missing from U.S. media.

Even Atlanta's AP bureau inexplicably initially decided not to write a report on it, only finally sending out a story many days later.

Such news omissions concerning Israeli partisans are not rare.

In 2004 a fanatic Israel loyalist wrote a letter saying that he was going to burn down Presbyterian churches while worshippers were inside (he was furious at the Presbyterian Church's decision to divest from companies profiting from the illegal Israeli occupation of Palestinian land).

This grisly threat also received minimal media play.

Despite Israeli violence against Americans (even while American taxpayers have given Israel far more of our tax money than to any other nation) American presidential candidates, with the exception of Ron Paul, continue to vie over who is most devoted to Israel.

It is ironic that Adler considers Obama so bad for Israel, given that Israeli analysts have rated him second only to Mitt Romney in his fidelity to Israel.

And Obama has now released a seven-minute video that may catapult our first African-American president into first place in pandering to an apartheid nation. But perhaps he'll be safe from assassins.

4) John Gunther Dean American Ambassador reportedly a Target of an Israeli Assassination Plot.

By
Barbara Crossett

In the wake of the accusation by Chas Freeman that his nomination to lead the National Intelligence Council was derailed by an "Israeli lobby," a forthcoming memoir by another distinguished ambassador adds stunning new charges to the debate.

The ambassador, John Gunther Dean, writes that over the years he not only came under pressure from pro-Israeli groups and officials in Washington but also was the target of an Israeli-inspired assassination attempt in 1980 in Lebanon, where he had opened links to the Palestine Liberation Organization.

Dean's suspicions that Israeli agents may have also been involved in the mysterious plane crash in 1988 that killed Pakistan's president, General Mohammed Zia ul Haq, led finally to a decision in Washington to declare him mentally unfit, which forced his resignation from the foreign service after a thirty-year career.

After he left public service, he was rehabilitated by the State Department, given a distinguished service medal and eventually encouraged to write his memoirs.

Now 82, Dean sees the subsequent positive attention he has received as proof that the insanity charge (he calls it Stalinist) was phony, a supposition later confirmed by a former head of the department's medical service.

Dean, whose memoir is titled Danger Zones: A Diplomat's Fight for America's Interests, was American ambassador in Lebanon in August 1980 when a three-car convoy carrying him and his family was attacked near Beirut.

Dean, whose memoir is titled Danger Zones: A Diplomat's Fight for America's Interests, was American ambassador in Lebanon in August 1980 when a three-car convoy carrying him and his family was attacked near Beirut.

"I was the target of an assassination attempt by terrorists using automatic rifles and antitank weapons that had been made in the United States and shipped to Israel," he wrote.

"Weapons financed and given by the United States to Israel were used in an attempt to kill an American diplomat!"

After the event, conspiracy theories abounded in the Middle East about who could have planned the attack, and why.

Lebanon was a dangerously factionalized country.

The State Department investigated, Dean said, but he was never told what the conclusion was.

He wrote that he “worked the telephone for three weeks” and met only official silence in Washington.

By then Dean had learned from weapons experts in the United States and Lebanon that the guns and ammunition used in the attack had been given by Israelis to a Christian militia allied with them.

“I know as surely as I know anything that Mossad, the Israeli intelligence agency, was somehow involved in the attack,” Dean wrote, describing how he had been under sharp criticism from Israeli politicians and media for his contacts with Palestinians.

“Undoubtedly using a proxy, our ally Israel had tried to kill me.”

Dean’s memoir, to be published in May for the Association for Diplomatic Studies and Training Memoir Series by New Academia Publishing under its Vellum imprint, has been read and approved for publication by the State Department with only very minor changes, none affecting Dean’s major points.

Its underlying theme is that American diplomacy should be pursued in American interests, not those of another country, however friendly.

A Jew whose family fled the Holocaust, Dean resented what he saw as an assumption, including by some in Congress, that he would promote Israel’s interests in his ambassadorial work.

Ambassador Chas Freeman

Dean, a fluent French speaker who began his long diplomatic career opening American missions in newly independent West African nations in the early 1960s, served later in Vietnam (where he described himself as a “loyal dissenter”) and was ambassador in Cambodia (where he carried out the American flag as the Khmer Rouge advanced), Denmark, Lebanon, Thailand (where Chas Freeman was his deputy) and India.

He takes credit for averting bloodshed in Laos in the 1970s by negotiating a coalition government shared by communist and non-communist parties.

He was sometimes a disputatious diplomat not afraid to contradict superiors, and he often took—and still holds—contrarian views.

He always believed, for example, that the United States should have attempted to negotiate with the Khmer Rouge rather than let the country be overrun by their brutal horror.

As ambassador in India in the 1980s he supported then-Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi's policy of seeking some kind of neutral coalition in Afghanistan that would keep the American- and Pakistani-armed mujahedeen from establishing a fundamentalist Islamic state.

For several years after the Soviet withdrawal, India continued to back Najibullah, a thuggish communist security chief whom the retreating Soviet troops left behind.

After the mujahedeen moved toward Kabul, Najibullah refused a United Nations offer of safe passage to India.

He was slaughtered and left hanging on a lamppost.

It was in the midst of this Soviet endgame in Afghanistan that Dean fell afoul of the State Department for the last time.

After the death of General Zia in August 1988, in a plane crash that also killed the American ambassador in Pakistan, Arnold Raphel, Dean was told in New Delhi by high-ranking officials that Mossad was a possible instigator of the accident, in which the plane's pilot and co-pilot were apparently disabled or otherwise lost control.

There was also some suspicion that elements of India's Research and Analysis Wing, its equivalent of the CIA, may have played a part.

India and Israel were alarmed by Pakistan's work on a nuclear weapon—the "Islamic bomb."

Dean was so concerned about these reports, and the attempt by the State Department to block a full FBI investigation of the crash in Pakistan, that he decided to return to Washington for direct consultations.

Instead of the meetings he was promised, he was told his service in India was over.

He was sent into virtual house arrest in Switzerland at a home belonging to the family of his French wife, Martine Duphenieux.

Six weeks later, he was allowed to return to New Delhi to pack his belongings and return to Washington, where he resigned.

Suddenly his health record was cleared and his security clearance restored.

He was presented with the Distinguished Service Award and received a warm letter of praise from Secretary of State George Shultz.

"Years later," he wrote in his memoir, "I learned who had ordered the bogus diagnosis of mental incapacity against me. It was the same man who had so effusively praised me once I was gone—George Shultz."

Asked in a telephone conversation last week from his home in Paris why Shultz had done this to him, Dean would say only, "He was forced to."

5) Fanatic Rabbi Who Teaches "Goyim Slavery" Comes to US

Israeli Rabbi who teaches that "the sole purpose of non-Jews is to serve Jews" plans to tap support of Sephardic Jews in US

Monday, December 26, 2011

Shas Rising Rabbi Ovadia Yossef, right, wants to raise the profile of Sephardic Jews worldwide.

Washington — In its 30 years of existence, Shas has evolved from a marginal ethnic political group to Israel's fourth largest party in the Knesset and is today the unchallenged kingmaker of Israeli politics.

Its leader, Rabbi Ovadia Yossef, as quoted in Israel's Jerusalem Post, teaches:

The sole purpose of non-Jews is to serve Jews, according to Rabbi Ovadia Yosef, the head of Shas's Council of Torah Sages and a senior Sephardi adjudicator.

"Goyim were born only to serve us. Without that, they have no place in the world – only to serve the People of Israel," he said in his weekly Saturday night sermon on the laws regarding the actions non-Jews are permitted to perform on Shabbat.

Now, Shas — or in its full name, the Sephardic Torah Guardians Movement — is attempting to establish a beachhead among American Sephardic Jews and, it hopes, replicate its success in Israel.

On December 4, the group launched its United States affiliate, American Friends of Shas, based in Brooklyn.

The new organization's goals are still in flux and, while activists agree its main mission should be raising the profile of Shas in America, some are also calling for active fundraising to support the party's operations in Israel.

Beyond these goals, the affiliate's founders also hope to unite Sephardic American Jews under the leadership of Rabbi Ovadia Yossef, Shas's founder and spiritual leader, who is revered as the most important rabbinic authority in the Sephardic world.

American Friends of Shas activists believe that such a consolidation of leadership could help elevate the standing of Orthodox Sephardic Jews, who often feel left out of the Ashkenazi-dominated American Jewish organizational world.

Jewish Supremacist - Rabbi David Algaze - "Jerusalem is Not a City of Three Religions"

"Associating with a very powerful leader and a very powerful organization can give us a sense of pride," said Rabbi David Algaze, who chaired the founding meeting of American Friends of Shas.

Rabbi Algaze added that while he did not believe there is prejudice against Sephardic Jews in the U.S., there is a "subconscious bias" that has made members of the community almost entirely absent from the Jewish communal leadership.

Calls to join the new organization were posted in recent weeks on billboards in Orthodox neighborhoods in Brooklyn and New Jersey.

The official launch took place, as first reported by the Jewish Star, a Long Island-based newspaper, with Rabbi Ovadia Yossef's personal aide, Zvi Hakak, greeting participants on behalf of the 91-year-old sage.

"The dream," Hakak said in the meeting, "is to raise the image of Sephardic Jews."

Before the end of WWII, other Jewish Supremacists, the Irgun, were actually running coast to coast fundraising tours to fund their killing of British soldiers in Palestine.

The British Embassy complained bitterly at the time that while Tommies were dying to free Europe and save those left in the camps, that we allowed this terrorist organization to raise money here.

But U. S. Politicians gave the poor Brits the bad news, "We are sorry, but as a political reality there is nothing we can do."

Hear some Hebrew Klan gospel straight from the horses mouth, a horse with a suit

The group plans to incorporate as a tax-exempt charitable organization.

Shas Knessett Member - Nissam Zev

The driving force behind the initiative, Israeli Knesset member Nissim Zeev, was among the original founders of the Shas party in Israel.

"Our main goal was to have a channel in which Shas's political views could be expressed in America," Zeev told the Forward in a December 13 phone interview.

"It is also very important for us to unite Sephardic communities in the U.S. around the party and around our rabbi, Ovadia Yossef."

Shas started off in Israel as a social-issue party, focused on the needs of its key constituency — Sephardic Orthodox Israelis, many of whom were from the struggling classes in Israeli society.

Shas established its own government-funded school network, which gained marked popularity in poor Sephardic towns.

This, in turn, increased the party's popular support.

Note: So what these hustlers are going to do, of course, is launder tax deductible funding from here into the Israeli political process.

Don't hold your breath for a Justice Dept. investigation.

They won't do it.

The party initially held centrist views on the Israeli–Palestinian conflict and supported the Oslo Accords.

But Shas has since moved to the right.

As a member of the ruling government coalition led by Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's Likud Party, the party has opposed any freeze in Israeli settlement activity in the occupied West Bank.

6) The Thirteenth Tribe

THE KHAZAR EMPIRE AND ITS HERITAGE

This book traces the history of the ancient Khazar Empire, a major but almost forgotten power in Eastern Europe, which in the Dark Ages became converted to Judaism.

Khazaria was finally wiped out by the forces of Genghis Khan, but evidence indicates that the Khazars themselves migrated to Poland and formed the cradle of Western Jewry. . .

The Khazars' sway extended from the Black Sea to the Caspian, from the Caucasus to the Volga, and they were instrumental in stopping the Muslim onslaught against Byzantium, the eastern jaw of the gigantic pincer movement that in the West swept across northern Africa and into Spain.

In the second part of this book, "The Heritage," Mr. Koestler speculates about the ultimate faith of the Khazars and their impact on the racial composition and social heritage of modern Jewry.

He produces a large body of meticulously detailed research in support of a theory that sounds all the more convincing for the restraint with which it is advanced.

Yet should this theory be confirmed, the term "anti-Semitism" would become void of meaning, since, as Mr. Koestler writes, it is based "on a misapprehension shared by both the killers and their victims.

The story of the Khazar Empire, as it slowly emerges from the past, begins to look like the most cruel hoax which history has ever perpetrated."

Absolute Historical Proof : Jews are not Israelites!

Research Proves "Jews" are non-Israelite Asiatics!

DATELINE U.S.A. (1977) -- In 1976 Random House published a book that should have hit the Christian Churches like a blockbuster, but instead they chose totally to ignore it.

It dealt with the racial origin of the people in Communist and Christian countries who call themselves "Jews," and whom the Churches (and the Jews themselves) generally insist are "God's Chosen People," the Israelite descendants of Abraham.

Since the late 1800's a small number of Bible Scholars, who were also students of History and Racial origins, have insisted the Church denominations were wrong that instead of being Israelites, these Jews from Eastern Europe and Western Asia were descended from Mongolians and other Asiatic peoples who had adopted Judaism as their "religion" over 1,000 years ago and had become know as "Jews."

These Bible scholars were ignored or condemned, and often called "cultists" or "anti-Semites."

Now, after many years of research, a well-known Jewish author, Arthur Koestler has published a 255 page book titled THE THIRTEENTH TRIBE in which he proves the same point i.e. that these Eastern European "Jews" are neither Israelites nor "Semites," but are instead Khazars, Mongols, and Huns!

Most major newspapers and magazines reviewed the book during 1976.

Also, Random House, the publisher, advertised it extensively and began some of their ads with the following headline

WHAT IF MOST JEWS AREN'T REALLY SEMITES AT ALL?

In addition, Random House quoted the following reviews:

"Mr. Koestler's excellent book...

Is as readable as it is thought-provoking.

Nothing could be more stimulating than the skill, elegance and erudition with which he marshals his facts and develops his theories..."

Fitzroy Maclean, New York Times Book Review.

"You do not have to be Jewish to be interested..."

Are today's Western Jews really ethnic, Semitic, Biblical Jews, or are most of them descendants of converted Khazars?...

This compact, interesting book...examines tragic-ironic implications in [this question] for modern history...

It should fascinate." --Edmund Fuller, Wall Street Journal

"Koestler marshals the evidence in a clear and convincing way. He tells a good story, pulling together materials from medieval Muslims and Jewish travelers, scholarly controversy and the mysterious lore of the Khazars." --Raymond Sokolov, Newsweek

Robert Kirsch of the Los Angeles Times stated in his lengthy review that 'Arthur Koestler publicizes with his customary skills a daring hypothesis: that THE KHAZAR JEWS MIGRATED TO POLAND AND BECAME THE FOREBEARS OF EASTERN EUROPEAN JEWRY...

Then Kirsch quoted Prof. A. N. Poliakov of Tel Aviv University, who stated that "The large majority of world Jewry is descended from the Jews of Khazaria."

Then he again quoted Koestler in THE THIRTEENTH TRIBE, "If so, this would mean that their ancestors came not from the Jordan but from the Volga not from Canaan but from the Caucasus, once believed to be the cradle of the Aryan race and that GENETICALLY THEY ARE MORE RELATED TO THE HUN, UIGUR, AND MAGYAR TRIBES THAN TO THE SEED OF ABRAHAM, ISAAC, AND JACOB..." (emphasis added)

We cannot stress enough how absolutely imperative it is for all Christian Americans to consider the startling proof in Arthur Koestler's book that today's Jews are not Israelites.

The Jewish influence on American life has reached such a stage that no student of contemporary history can ignore it.

Not only the news media are Jewish monopolies, but top positions in the U.S. government are largely filled by Eastern European Jews.

The magazine and book publishing houses are in Jewish hands and movies, television, and the other entertainment industries are dominated by Jews in all phases.

America's government and most of her people's sources of information are controlled and directed by Jews.

If these people were really "God's Chosen People," perhaps Americans would have little cause for concern.

BUT WHAT IF THEY ARE REALLY THE "HUNS" AND THEREFORE THE ANCIENT ENEMIES OF CHRISTENDOM?

Since many Americans may not have an opportunity to read Koestler's book, we shall herewith submit our own index-style review.

THE THIRTEENTH TRIBE

15	Khazars adopt Judaism as their religion in A.D. 740.
16	Majority of Eastern European Jews are Khazar and Japhetic in origin, not Semitic. Refers to 1973 Jewish Encyclopedia and A. N. Poliak, Professor, Medieval Jewish History, Tel Aviv University.
17	Jews more closely related to Hun, Uigur, and Magyrs than to the seed of Abraham Isaac and Jacob.
18	Khazars exacted tribute from subject peoples.
20	Identified them with the hosts of Gog and Magog.
22	German word Ketzer is our word for Khazar and means heretic or Jew.
23	Khazars were with Attila the Hun in 4th century.
37-39	Some were phallic worshipers, killed anyone thought to be extra intelligent and called it an offering to god.
46	Quotes 1,000-year-old Arab historian, "The Khazars and their King are all Jews...some are of the opinion that Gog and Magog are the Khazars."
47-50	Khazars were re-exporters of foreign goods, middlemen, inspectors of trade, goldsmiths.

	and silversmiths; and they exacted 10% tax on all trade.
59-63	Jews fled Rome and Greece to Khazaria to avoid forced conversion to Christianity. They adopted Islam when forced, repudiating it when safe.
72	Khazar King, in a letter, traced his people in Togarma and Japheth, the ancestors of all the Turkish tribes.
81	In A.D. 864 a monk wrote "there exists a people under the sky in regions where no Christians can be found, whose name is Gog and Magog, and who are Huns; among them is one called Gazari [Khazari?], who are circumcised and observe Judaism in its entirety."
93	Russian communists tried to hide Khazar-Jewish connection!
95-132	History of breaking up of Khazar Empire and integration of these Jews into Russia, Poland, etc.
135	Khazar kingdom known as a kingdom of "Red" Jews.
141	Khazars joined Ghengis Khan and retained their Judaism.
145	Interchangeable names --Khazar, Zhid (or Yid), and Jew

151	Majority of Jews in Middle Ages were Khazars.
152-154	Jews were mintmasters, royal treasurers, tax collectors, and money lenders. Principal source of income was foreign trade and the levying of customs dues and they practiced communal life.
159-161	They lost the name of Khazars and became known as Jews. During Dark Ages commerce largely in Jewish hands, including slave trade.
163-167	During Crusades whole families and towns of Jews committed suicide rather than accept Christianity.
167-171	Proves only a handful of Sephardim Jews were in Europe so the vast majority of Jews today are Khazar in origin.
172-174	Gives origin of Yiddish language. It is NOT Hebrew!
178	"The Jewish dark ages may be said to begin with the Renaissance." (Reviews comment: This remark by the Jew Cecil Roth, coupled with other information, is a sorrowful admission that the Jews were supreme in the Dark Ages but lost their dominion over Europe when the Light of God's Word brought about the Renaissance!)
180-199	Quotes from many sources to prove Jews NOT descended from Biblical Israelites, ending with this, ...evidence from anthropology concurs with history in refuting the popular belief in a Jewish race descended from the biblical tribe.

200-222	Refers to others who have written on the same subject.
223	Israeli's right to exist...not based on...the mythological covenant of Abraham with God; it is based on international law -- i.e., on the United Nations' decision of 1947. . .
224-226	Koestler ends his book by saying he believes many Jews have learned of their Khazar ancestry and now reject the Chosen-Race doctrine.

THE THIRTEENTH TRIBE proves beyond doubt that modern Jews are not Biblical Israelites.

Every church member in America should insist that his Pastor investigate these claims.

Are our Jewish politicians, publishers, movie makers, and opinion molders God's "Chosen People"?

Or are they Mongol and Hun infiltrators of Christendom?

Is The Jews' "Chosen People" Masquerade Finally Over?

Shortly after World War I, Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Company, assembled a staff of experts in Detroit to conduct research on the European Jews who had been entering America in large numbers since the 1880's.

Ford provided the staff with several million dollars for this research, and in 1923 he published the results in a four-volume work titled "THE INTERNATIONAL JEW."

It was Henry Ford's conclusion that very few of these people who called themselves "Jews" were descendants of the Bible Israelites.

Ford further proved that these Jews, using all sorts of crimes while under the cloak of being the Chosen People of the Bible, were rapidly taking economic and political control of America.

In the religious field, Ford claimed THE JEWS HAD SECRETLY GAINED CONTROL OF MOST PROTESTANT SEMINARIES AND CHRISTIAN BOOK- PUBLISHING HOUSES and had been able to remove almost all criticism of Jews from Christian literature.

In summing up his findings, Henry Ford stated, "The Jews are not the Chosen People, though practically the entire Church has succumbed to the propaganda which declares them to be so."

Ford's book caused a furor for a few years but soon disappeared from colleges, universities, and public libraries and became unobtainable at any price.

The Churches continued to teach "The Jews are God's Chosen People, Israel," and the (by then) Jewish-dominated news media began to refer to Jews always as Israelites.

Anyone opposing the increasing Jewish control of the nations was immediately branded "anti-Semitic;" and Jewish dominated Seminaries taught new ministers to quote Genesis 12:1-3 and sternly warn their flocks that anyone speaking unfavorably of the Jews would be "cursed by God."

Jewish control of American society, politics, and religions continued to increase.

In 1951 retired U.S. Military Intelligence Officer, Col. John Beaty, published a scholarly 265-page book IRON CURTAIN OVER AMERICA.

In it Col. Beaty gave overwhelming evidence this strange Race of Eastern European "Jews" were actually Khazar and Mongol Asiatics and had no racial ancestry in Israel at all.

He then proved that by 1951 these "Jews" had a stranglehold on American politics, on Banking and Credit, on all sources of news, on the entertainment industry, on America's education system, and that they were the predominant race as judges, lawyers, doctors, and in organized crime.

The Jewish news media refused to review the book, Jewish book dealers refused to handle it, Christian book stores ignored it, and only a few thousand copies were distributed.

Most Americans never heard of IRON CURTAIN OVER AMERICA.

Now, because of renewed interest, both THE INTERNATIONAL JEW (in an abridged edition) and IRON CURTAIN OVER AMERICA have been reprinted and are available.

The latest, and perhaps the most succinct book on this subject, is ISRAEL'S 5 TRILLION DOLLAR SECRET by Col. Curtis B. Dall, former son-in-law of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, and a personal acquaintance of many high officials in the U.S. Government since the 1930's.

Col. Dall lives and works in the Washington, D. C. area, and his book, published in 1977. Col. Dall proves again, from reliable sources, that the Jews are NOT Israelites.

In fact, Col. Dall calls their masquerade as "Israel" the greatest "hoax" of the last centuries!

It should be read by every non-Jew.

You now know their false identity as "Israel" protects these "Jews" from being exposed as aliens and as anti-Americans.

Give this sheet to your Minister. Tell him to preach the truth - or resign!

Most preaching today is based on the "Jew-Israel" myth, and it is false. "Fear them not therefore; for there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed: and hid, that shall not be known.

What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye on the housetops" (Jesus, in Matthew 10:26,27).

Thank You for reading allot to take in and consume and I think I have proven my point, these so called Jews – Gods Chosen people who you as a Police Officer, Terrorism / Counter Terrorism Officer are scamming you.

They go around committing Terrorism Acts and Attacks blaming Muslims for the Attacks, they go about through their Jewish Organizations bribing, threatening politicians, governments all about the World and committing assassinations on who ever they want.

Isnt it time you put a stop to it and letting these Fake Jews get away with murder?
